

Together with the Archbishop of Canterbury, the Archbishop of York is a leading spokesperson on behalf of the Church of England.

He is one of the Presidents of the General Synod and of the Archbishop's Council. He is also Chair and President of numerous Church bodies.

The role of the Archbishop of York is varied. He is a Primate of England and Archbishop of the Province of York, leading the twelve dioceses in the

Diocese of York

A family of 589 churches and 127 schools in 443 parishes

Learn more

York Minster

The Anglican Communion

The Archbishop represents the Church of England internationally

Discover more

Source URL: <https://www.archbishopofyork.org/archbishop-york/role-archbishop-york>