

It is my experience that it is when we, the Church of Jesus Christ in all its manifold shapes and sizes, reach out together in mission, in service of the world and in proclamation of the gospel, that our unity is strengthened and revealed.

Stephen Cottrell, Archbishop of York

The Archbishop of York, Stephen Cottrell, is in Rome this week (Monday 22 May 2023) for his first official visit to the Anglican Centre and the Holy See.

His official visit includes meeting different departments of the Vatican connected with evangelisation and ecumenicalism.
